

Language department

13th April 2015 – Spring research meeting

Universitat Internacional de Catalunya

C. Immaculada 22, Barcelona

Saló de Graus

The sessions are open to everyone interested, but please email idiomes@uic.es to confirm you are coming so that we can order enough tea and coffee for the break.

Part 1 (9.40 – 12.30)

Doctoral Seminar: Research in linguistics and language education
Short, informal presentations by doctoral students and discussion

9.40 Welcome

9.45 – 10.10 Janine Knight (UIC/UOC)
Learner agency in online spoken interaction tasks

10.10 – 10.35 Dean Wang (UIC/UAB)
Mobile apps and language learning 'in the wild'

10.35 – 11.00 Mandy Deal (UIC/UAB)
Epistemic orientations and interactional competence among university students during group work

Coffee break

11.15 – 11.40 Joan Ploettner (UIC/UAB)
Professional collaboration at the boundaries between content and language teaching

11.40 - 12.05 Jaume Batlle (UB)
Sequential organization of repairs in Spanish as a Foreign Language teacher-students meaning-focused interaction

12.05 – 12.30 Ricardo-María Jiménez (UIC/UNAV)
Framing, ideología y lingüística de corpus

Part 2 (12.45 – 13.30)

Conference by Dr. Ruth Breeze (Universidad de Navarra)

Dr. Ruth Breeze is a research fellow within the Institute for Culture and Society and a professor in the Institute of Modern Languages at the Universidad de Navarra. She has published widely in the areas of discourse analysis, language pedagogy and professional communication.

Conference title: Teaching content in English in higher education: European experiences