iELTS Exam Preparation Workshop

Main language of instruction: English

Presentation

This is a 30 hour workshop which includes 15-hour, face to face video conference exam preparation for the Cambridge IELTS multilevel exam to certify levels B1 to C1 of English under the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). It is a workshop style class with an emphasis on exam taking skills and feedback based on the practice done in class. As well there is a 15 hour self-study section using the material found in the online platform NetLanguages.

This workshop does not include registration fees for the official IELTS exam.

Pre-course requirements

Students should have a minimum of a B1 level. Course material is based on a B2+ level.

Objectives

To be able to successfully pass an official IELTS Cambridge multilevel exam and earn a certificate in the language competency that corresponds with the student's level (B1, B2 or C1) in English, based on CEFR levels.

Syllabus

Mock practice exams which cover the four skill areas, reading comprehension, listening comprehension, writing and speaking, plus 15 hours of online self study material.

Evaluation systems and criteria

There is no evaluation. There is continuous feedback based on the results of the mock practice exams.

The exam will be administered by Cambridge Exams and must be taken on the days and times established by them. There is no make-up exam or second opportunity.

Accreditation

Certificate of attendance and workshop completion. To pass the course it is essential to have attended at least 80% of the classes.

Once you have passed the exam, you will receive a Certificate from Cambridge Exams.
