Brief Description of Institution

Universitat Internacional de Catalunya (UIC Barcelona), founded in 1997, is a private, non-profit university based on Christian humanism. With campuses in Barcelona and Sant Cugat, it offers undergraduate and postgraduate programs in health sciences, architecture, communication, law, education, economics, and humanities, combining academic rigor with professional relevance.

Research is a core pillar, with an interdisciplinary and applied focus in areas such as biomedicine, dentistry, sustainable architecture, and social sciences, in collaboration with companies and international institutions. The university hosts several research institutes and promotes knowledge transfer. Strongly committed to sustainability, it develops initiatives in sustainable cities, health and well-being, and social inclusion. Its international community fosters a multicultural environment, preparing ethically driven professionals to lead in a global world.
