

MASTER'S DEGREE IN
Arts and Cultural Management

16th Edition

OVER TWENTY YEARS OF EXPERIENCE TEACHING CULTURAL MANAGEMENT

Start your journey to becoming a cultural manager and position yourself in an emerging sector. The UIC Barcelona Master's Degree in Arts and Cultural Management takes a practical approach to learning with a strong international focus. You will discover everything there is to know about the inner workings of cultural services and products from an entrepreneurial perspective. As well as the core subjects, the programme also covers material that will help you develop leadership skills and use dynamic technologies, eventually leading into two fields of specialisation: visual arts and heritage or creative cultural industries -which are taught in Spanish and English, respectively-.

The subjects you study throughout this programme will help you to develop a versatile and multidisciplinary profile, so that you are ready to step into a job in the world of policy development, institutions and cultural projects. The Master's Degree in Arts and Cultural Management has close ties to the city of Barcelona and fantastic cultural activities and projects that have an international impact. UIC Barcelona will prepare you for a future as a cultural manager using a methodology that combines theory with practical case analysis. The classes will be interspersed with visits to cultural facilities and institutions, as well as a series of talks given by experts.

Lulu Alsheddi

Master's Degree Student

Saudi Arabia

"Being in a class with 24 different nationalities created a very vibrant cultural exchange. We learned a great deal from the programme but also from each other, as we formed a mosaic of cultures, languages and perspectives that enriched our collective understanding, broadened our perspectives and increased our appreciation for the diversity that exists in our world."

María Rodríguez

Master's Degree Student

Spain

"The faculty is very aware that students are not passive, but rather active agents in their education. So the classes are designed from that premise, as a dialogue. The teachers value and respect what students have to say, so I chose this master's degree to continue studying in the best environment in order to maximise my skills."

Valentin Oprisor

Master's Degree Student

Romania

"The visits to different cultural institutions were a chance to put theory into practice and witness first-hand what managing art and culture is like behind the scenes."
